

UW Juggling Festival - Evening Show

Sat March 11,2006
Conrad Grebel, Great Hall (rm 1111)
7:30 (doors open at 7:10)

Featuring

Wes Peden

Wes Peden is an obsessive juggler who enjoys manipulating random props with wild abandon. Winner of the 2004 IJA juniors competition, he is competing in the World Juggling Federation Championships Intermediate division. In his spare time Wes enjoys painting, napping and trying to figure out what "X" equals.

Joe West

Joe West. Juggler. Pilot. Instructor. In 2004 at the UW Juggling Fest, Joe performed a beautiful and moving glowball routine that brought members of the audience to tears. While recovering from a broken finger, Joe is working on a whimsical new routine that is sure to amaze.

Jeff and Wes Peden of AIRPLAY

Jeff formed AIRPLAY, this Father and Son act, when it became apparent that Wes was even more of a juggling fanatic than his father. Jeff and Wes will amaze you with their astonishing skills and delight you with the way they laugh, smile and engage the audience.

Right On The Head

A family based juggling and “extreme” unicycle troop from Ottawa, Canada, “The Right On The Head Juggling Troop” has been performing throughout the National Capital Area and Western Ontario since 2002. The troop consists of Carl Roth (44), Karl Roth (17), Thomas Roth (15), and Devon Eidick (18). Their high energy family show consists of 2, 3 and 4 man team juggling involving up to 12 clubs, 4 unicycles, toilet plungers, knives, torches (outdoors), diabolos and audience participation – all accompanied by kewl juggling music! In addition, these guys ride their unis over various obstacles taking sport unicycling to an extreme level!

Check out <http://carlroth.net/rightonthehead/> for more details.

We are working on finalizing details of the show. Please Check back later for updates.

Tickets are $5 in advance (or at the festival) and $10 at the door. Please contact the UW Juggling Club to reserve your tickets.

Conrad Grebel is about 5 to 10 min walk from the SLC (the site of the festival). To walk over as a group, meet in the SLC at 7pm. Conrad Grebel is shown as CGR on the campus map
